

Organic Cosmetics from 1972 By Phyt's France

Facial therapies

Entrust your face to the expert hands of your skin therapist. The south of France is yours to discover with Phyt's Organic Skincare - biocosmetics for 50 years.

Beauty is inseparable from overall health, linking ecology and a natural philosophy. This is how Phyt's became pioneers in the cosmetic industry. They developed innovative and effective products for you to discover these beautiful certified organic treatments of natural origin specially designed for the face: moisturizing, balancing, nourishing, skin revitalizing and regenerating treatments.

The unique professional treatments are packaged in ampoule form.

PHYT'S means saying NO to synthetic substances: preservatives, dyes, surfactants, gelling agents or stabilizers present in almost all beauty products.

The only brand to guarantee 100% natural origin, while favouring organic products, PHYT'S requirements are higher than those of the Cosmebio charter in Europe.
